

IXL Learning and Clever Announce Multi-Year Partnership to Provide No-Cost Rostering and SSO for all K-12 Schools

SAN MATEO, Calif. — August 18, 2020 — IXL Learning, which provides IXL, the K-12 personalized learning platform used by 10 million students, today announced a multi-year partnership with Clever, the most widely used single sign-on (SSO) portal in K-12 schools nationwide. IXL will use Clever as its preferred rostering and SSO solution, making it simpler for students and teachers to access its award-winning curriculum.

“IXL is designed to help every student become a strong, confident learner,” said Paul Mishkin, CEO of IXL Learning. “Our expanded partnership with Clever will allow students to seamlessly connect to IXL and focus on mastering essential skills that are critical for success in the classroom.”

IXL provides a fun, engaging experience for students of all levels, and includes over 8,000 adaptive skills across K-12 math, English language arts, science and social studies. Now, any school system can enable Clever single-sign on (SSO) access to IXL’s curriculum, diagnostic and analytics. Students will easily find those personalized resources in the Clever Portal that they use daily for digital learning.

“IXL’s comprehensive curriculum and actionable insights help schools differentiate instruction and accelerate student progress,” said Tyler Bosmeay, CEO of Clever. “We’re thrilled to welcome IXL Learning to the family and make its resources available through Clever, to support educators and families who are navigating the complexities of remote and hybrid learning models.”
